

Australian Government

Comcare

PUTTING YOU FIRST

AUTHORITY AND RELEASE OF SUPERANNUATION INFORMATION

DISCLOSING AND SHARING OF INFORMATION

Comcare needs your personal information to manage your compensation claim and to perform functions under the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 (SRC Act).

Your personal information may also be used to administer and enforce other legislation including the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1991 (OHS Act) and associated regulations.

When managing your claim, Comcare and the parties below may need to share records containing your personal information.

- > your employer at the date of injury and any subsequent employer
- > your superannuation fund manager or trustee
- > any health professional, hospital or other health institutions
- > your case manager
- > your rehabilitation provider
- > vocational and functional assessor
- > employment agencies
- > legal advisers, persons engaged by Comcare to conduct research related activities, the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Commission
- > Investigators appointed under section 40 of the OHS Act
- > any relevant third party (or insurer) considered by Comcare to have contributed to the injury
- > any other person assisting Comcare to perform its functions or exercise its powers.

YOUR AUTHORITY TO COLLECT SUPERANNUATION INFORMATION

I (Employee's full name)

of (Employee's full private address)

Comcare claim reference number / authorise and consent my superannuation fund to provide details to Comcare relating to my cessation of employment with (Insert Department or Agency name)

on / / (Date employment ceased)

I understand the requested information is required to determine and manage my compensation claim and to assist Comcare in any actions authorised under the SRC Act.

I authorise and consent to a photocopy of this Authority being sufficient evidence of my authority and consent to discuss or provide the information requested.

Signature

Date / /