

Program

1.00pm - 3.30pm (AEDT), 10 October 2024

Forum facilitator: Andrew Crane, Comcare

Session	Presenters
Comcare welcome	Greg Vines , CEO, Comcare
Regulatory update Comcare and Safe Work Australia will provide a regulatory update.	Luka Campbell and Kellie Heran , Comcare and Katherine Taylor , Safe Work Australia
Data-driven strategies to reduce psychosocial risks and improve clinical outcomes Dr Natalie Flatt will highlight the latest insights from the Thriving Workplace index, exploring the strong connection between psychosocial health and safety and effective utilisation of mental health resources in the workplace. Dr Flatt will offer a range of practical strategies for leaders to enhance the use of tools and resources, breaking down barriers such as stigma, accessibility, relevance and lack of awareness.	Dr Natalie Flatt , Chief Mental Health Advisor, SuperFriend
Australian Taxation Office (ATO) presentation ATO will provide case study examples of work being done to support psychosocial health and safety in their workplace. The session will highlight insights, lessons learned and practical considerations for others considering a similar approach in their workplace.	Megan Boyd and Kristy Stewart Australian Taxation Office
Neurodiversity at work Callie Barret will discuss the importance of understanding, including, and leveraging neurodiverse perspectives at work. She will debunk some of the myths and share some of her lived experience and insights from working with hundreds of individuals living and working with neurodiversity. Callie will highlight how fostering neurodiversity at work can enhance workplace inclusion, productivity and innovation.	Callie Barret , Department of Health
Psychosocial hazards and work redesign Professor Sharon Parker will focus on addressing psychosocial hazards and the hierarchy of controls through a SMART Work Design approach. She will discuss the importance of participatory change as a powerful pathway to successful SMART work. The session will include various case studies for practical application.	Professor Sharon Parker , Curtin University

Note: while we make every effort to ensure the program is accurate at time of publishing, it is subject to change.