

ATTACHMENT A—AGREED NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

SRC Act payment type	Agreed notification requirement
Following an Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) (section 64) decision	Where medical treatment is compensable following an AAT decision the relevant authority must notify Medicare if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> > liability for injury is accepted (section 14) 6 months after the claim was lodged and medical treatment is compensable (section 16) > liability for medical treatment is reinstated (section 16) 6 months after the date of determination to cease medical treatment. This is a 'once off' notification requirement and does not apply to ongoing future payments. This is a reimbursement arrangement (section 13 of the HOSC Act). Services Australia is required to recover from the compensation payer any Medicare benefits that may have been paid to the employee. Where permanent impairment (PI) is compensable following an AAT decision the relevant authority must notify Medicare if the PI compensation amount (section 24 and section 27) is $5000 or more. This is a judgement or settlement (section 23 of the HOSC Act). Services Australia is required to recover from the compensation payer any Medicare benefits that may have been paid to the employee.
Compensation for injury (section 14)	If a relevant authority accepts liability for the compensation claim after six months from the date the employee lodges a claim for compensation the relevant authority must notify Services Australia, where medical treatment is compensable (section 16) This is a 'once off' notification requirement and does not apply to ongoing future payments. This is a reimbursement arrangement (section 13 of the HOSC Act).
Injury resulting in death (section 17) and reimbursement of funeral expenditure (section 18)	Not notifiable
Medical expenses (section 16)—ongoing payments	Not notifiable
Medical expenses (section 16)—ceased and later reinstated	Notifiable Where medical treatment compensation is reinstated six months or more after the date of determination to cease medical treatment.
Weekly incapacity compensation (section 19 to section 22)—ongoing payments	Not notifiable

SRC Act payment type	Agreed notification requirement
Permanent impairment and non-economic loss lump sum compensation (section 24 and section 27)	Notifiable PI compensation (section 24 and section 27) is a judgement or settlement under the HOSC Act and relevant authorities must notify Medicare where the PI compensation amount is $5000 or more.
Interim permanent impairment compensation (section 25)	Not notifiable
Household services and attendant care (section 29)	Not notifiable
Redemption of weekly incapacity lump sum (section 30)	Not notifiable
Rehabilitation costs (section 36 and section 37)	Not notifiable
Modifications, Aids and Appliances (section 39)	Not notifiable